

NOW HIRING

Be a part of our Instructor Team today!

Position: Swimming Instructor
Locations: SUNY Old Westbury in Long Island
Flushing, Queens
Sheepshead/Bensonhurst, Brooklyn

Dolphin Swimming is the largest Learn-to-Swim program in NYC and Long Island area with thousands of students completing the program each season. We are currently looking to recruit swimming instructors that love working with children and have a good swimming background to share with the students. Our weekend positions are available now and are ideal for high school and college students.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct classes according to the Dolphin Swimming's program curriculum.
- Record lesson plans and grade students according to their performance at the end of the day.
- Communicate effectively with fellow instructors and Site managers regarding the students' progress and any concerns that may come up.
- Enforce safety rules in and around the swimming facility.

Requirements:

- Competent in all strokes, advanced turns and starts, and safety skills.
- Must be able to work on the weekends. (Saturday or/and Sundays)
- No teaching experience is required, training will be provided. (Having teaching experience with positive and motivational reinforcement or American Red Cross Water Safety Instructor Certification is a plus)

Apply:

- Email your resume to: Employment@dolphinswimming.com